DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF FLORIDA
SECOND DISTRICT

JEREMY O'DANIEL GREENIDGE,

Appellant,

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

No. 2D2025-1463

November 18, 2026

Appeal from the Circuit Court for Hillsborough County; Elizabeth G. Rice, Judge.

Blair Allen, Public Defender, and Ronald N. Toward, Assistant Public Defender, Bartow, for Appellant.

James Uthmeier, Attorney General, Tallahassee, and James A. Hellickson, Assistant Attorney General, Tampa, for Appellee.

SILBERMAN, Judge.

Jeremy O'Daniel Greenidge appeals his judgment and sentence after being found guilty by jury of one count of sexual battery by a person eighteen or older on a victim who is eighteen or older under specified circumstances. We affirm his judgment and sentence but write to briefly address his argument that the circuit court erred in its use of a six-person jury rather than a twelve-person jury. Existing precedent does not support his argument. See Williams v. Florida, 399 U.S. 78, 86 (1970) (holding that six-member jury panel did not violate Williams's constitutional rights); Bass v. State, 51 Fla. L. Weekly D2053, D2053-54 (Fla. 2d DCA Oct. 2, 2026) (concluding that conviction by a six-person jury did not violate Bass's constitutional rights). However, we note that the United States Supreme Court has accepted certiorari review in a case challenging Williams's holding that a six-person jury is not a violation of the constitution. See Kian v. Florida, 146 S. Ct. 2732 (2026).

Accordingly, we affirm Greenidge's judgment and sentence.

NORTHCUTT and LABRIT, JJ., Concur.

Opinion subject to revision prior to official publication.